

Our Foundry collection

We are currently working on our fascinating Foundry collection at the Auld Kirk Museum with the support of Museums Galleries Scotland. Our Foundry collection includes objects and material from the renowned Lion Foundry, South Bank Ironworks aka Star Foundry and Kirkintilloch Foundry aka the Old Foundry.

We've been busy cataloguing, photographing and condition checking the collection but we need your help!

Have you ever worked in a local Foundry?
Or perhaps you know someone who has?

We're also interested in the family life and culture around the foundries and we'd love to hear your stories.

If you, or anyone you know, can help shed light on our collection please contact us at:

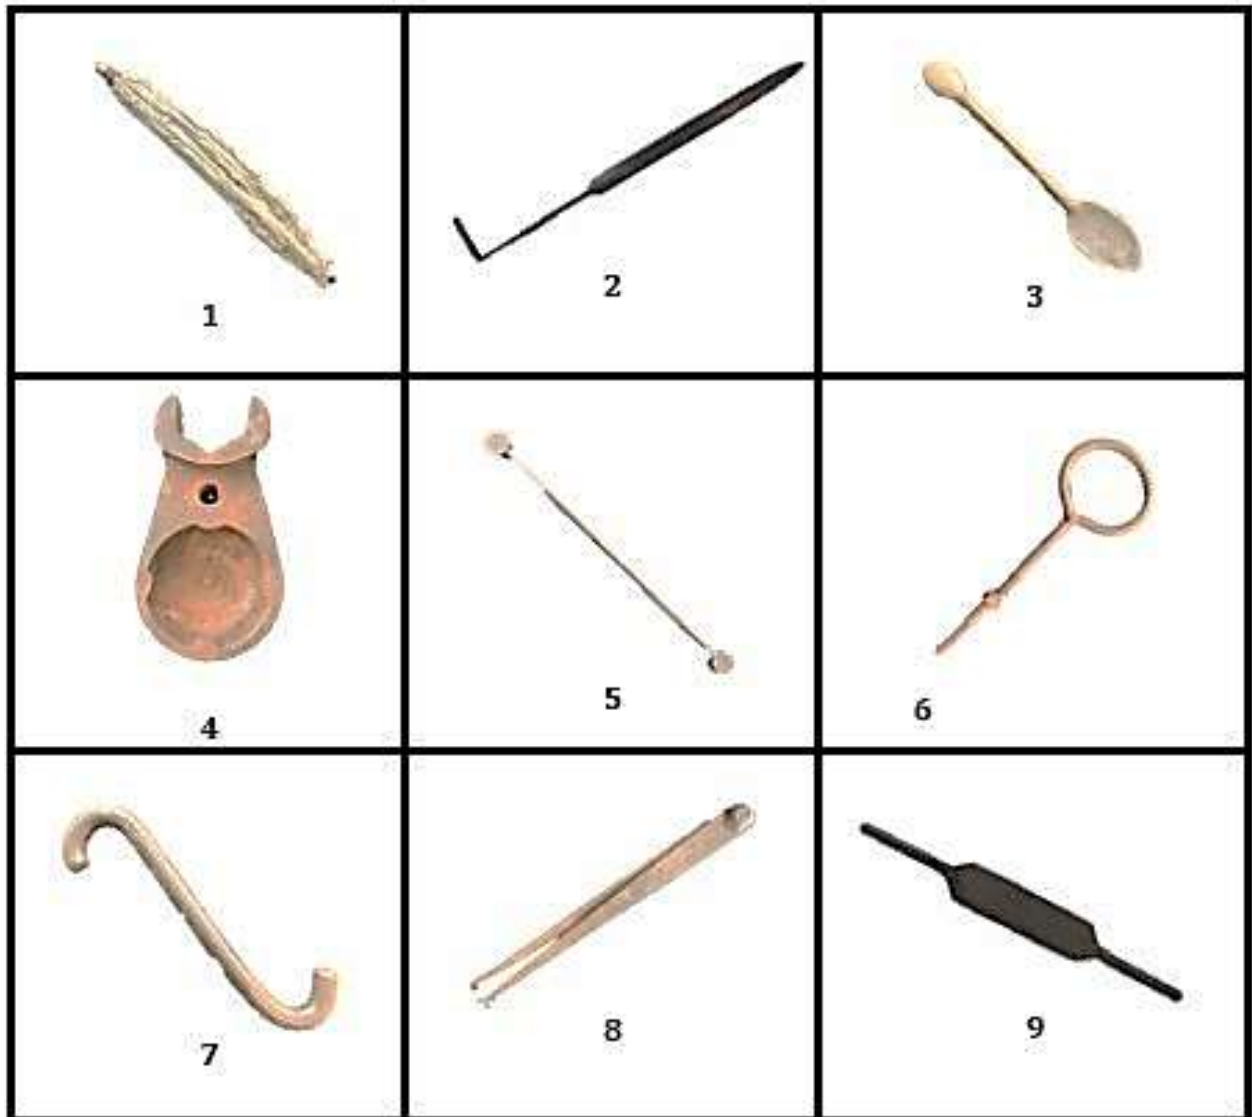

museums@eastdunbarton.gov.uk

Be sure to also follow our Social Media accounts to find out what we're up to and get involved with our weekly #ironworkthursday

A challenge for you - yes you!
Can you identify these tools from our collection?
Or perhaps you know someone who can?

Get in touch and let us know if you got them all at:
